#Professional Experience

Daikin Open Innovation Lab Silicon Valley / Web Developer Intern

July 2019 – August 2019 : San Francisco Bay Area, CA

- ↳ Worked on a web application that allows users to remotely monitor facilities through real-time sensor data.
- ↳ Implemented a feature to allow first-time users to update their password through the web application. Speedily learned Redux and Redux Sagas with React to implement the feature in time.
- ↳ Extensively used Chrome Developer Tools to analyze the application and diagnose problems.
- ↳ Improved the front-end by fixing three bugs, including a major one that broke the user interface, and filed three others.

#College Projects

Restaurant Automation Web Application | Code: <https://bit.ly/33CfzVf>

Jan 2019 – May 2019 : Missouri University of Science & Technology | Rolla, MO

- ↳ Designed and implemented a web application to automate interactions between customers and restaurants.
- ↳ Used Material Design elements to design five web page mock-ups, for three frontend clients, in Figma.
- ↳ Developed a page for listing the orders placed by customers. Used ReactJS, TypeScript and Material-UI components.
- ↳ Implemented Agile methodologies like weekly scrum meetings, to efficiently manage frontend and backend project components.

Bookstore Web Application | Code: <https://bit.ly/3de4o9F>

August 2019 – December 2019 : Missouri University of Science & Technology | Rolla, MO

- ↳ Designed and implemented a MySQL Database that stores details about the books.
- ↳ Connected the book search interface to the backend. Implemented a RESTful API using Express.js for interacting with the database.
- ↳ Used Git tools to effectively manage several branches and merge code developed by team members.
